Conditions:

1. The school is registered under the Right of Children to Free and Compulsory Education Act 2009 and the Karnataka Education Act 1983 and the rules framed thereunder, and recognition is renewed up to the registered classes. Permission is not granted to run additional classes and additional sections other than these classes.

2. The school shall function under the Karnataka Education Act 1983 and the Right of Children to Free and Compulsory Education Act 2009 and the rules framed thereunder.

3. Under the rules framed under the Right of Children to Free and Compulsory Education Act 2009, 25% of seats shall be reserved for children belonging to weaker sections. For schools falling under the purview of RTE, the government has the authority to admit children under RTE against the reserved seats. [The government has framed rules to facilitate the admission of children in neighboring schools where their parents reside, and accordingly, if there are government or government-aided educational institutions, children will be admitted to those schools.] Otherwise, private schools shall admit children sent by the government and provide them the opportunity to continue their education up to the elementary level. These children should be allowed to continue their studies without any discrimination.
